PRESS RELEASE

ROSALYN DRISCOLL: NATURAL LIGHT

NOVEMBER 10-DECEMBER 12, 2010

Artist's reception Saturday November 13, 3-6 PM

SOWA First Friday Reception December 3, 5-8 PM

Rosalyn Driscoll will show recent sculptures in her solo exhibit NATURAL LIGHT at Boston Sculptors Gallery, 486 Harrison Avenue in Boston.

Driscoll's sculptures speak the language of bodies and the spaces—both internal and external—that we inhabit. She has focused for many years on tactile phenomena, but in this exhibit she unleashes her fascination with light and its effects in sculptures made primarily with rawhide, a sensuous, organic medium.

Driscoll's work shows concurrently with the work of Sally Fine.

GALLERY HOURS: Wednesday-Sunday 12-6 PM
